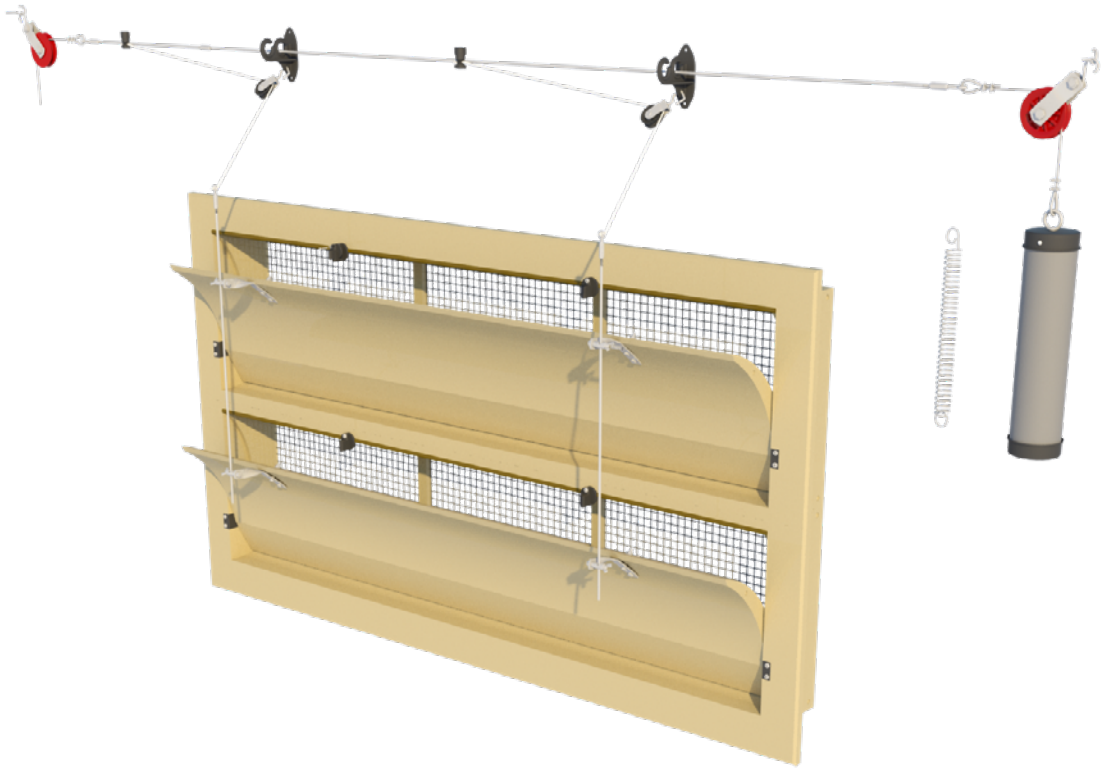
6000-VFG-2-C

This tunnel unit is built up out of two single 6000-VFG inlets. This version is equipped with a curved inner valve that guides the air upwards during minimum ventilation. After opening further than 35% the air will also flow underneath the inner valve. This unit is controlled by two central arms per valve, which in turn, are connected with the other inner valves.



INFO | DATASHEET | ASSEMBLY | MOUNTING | WORKING